

PROJECT FOCUS

To revamp Upper Ninety's current measurement and evaluation tools and processes.

DELIVERABLES

- Suite of surveys for tracking student improvement and programmatic outcomes, including student evaluation questionnaires and parent/guardian and school staff evaluation surveys
- Comprehensive workbook compiling information from semester attendance/roster sheets
- Instruction manual for survey administration, data entry, code book use, and analysis

Upper Ninety is a positive youth development program for teens in low-income Austin neighborhoods. Its programming combines soccer training with social-emotional learning, Restorative Justice, and mindfulness in its after-school training sessions, in-school support, and weekend games & community meet-ups.
